TODAY'S INTRODUCTION

-Welcome to United Israel World Union, this is our Sabbath morning scripture study coming to you live from the United Israel Center in Saint Francisville, Louisiana. Many of you are in your own place today, alone, Shabbat Shalom and thank you for joining us this morning. We need one another to help us go through what the world is going through today. I pray that all of you and the ones that you care for remain healthy today and throughout the coronavirus.

-We are currently in a new teaching series called, "Prophet" where I want to talk about the subject, the people, and the message of that mysterious group of men and women that are biblically referred to as the Prophet. We just completed a 12-part series called "Torah". The primary purpose of that study was to show and teach a method whereby you can determine within the first five books of the bible, Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy, the hand of Moses. What is it that Moses wrote? This series was important because it gives us the essential tools to recognize apart from tradition and our beliefs, the voice of Moses in the five books. If we were able to determine the things that Moses said, then our goal in this study on the Prophet is to determine what the mouth of YHVH said from the hands, narrators, characters, people, and voices within the bible.

-The reason that we have prophets and prophecy is that at Horeb / Sinai YHVH spoke in an audible voice, in a day of assembly to an entire group made up of the people of Israel and a mixed multitude who joined with them. There at the foot of Sinai they saw, heard and had an awe-inspiring fearful experience and they were terrified. The people made a request that they not hear again the voice of YHVH their God or see his great fire anymore lest they die.

-Exo 20: 18 Now when all the people saw the thunder and the flashes of lightning and the sound of the trumpet and the mountain smoking, the people were afraid and trembled, and they stood far off 19 and said to Moses, "You speak to us, and we will listen; but do not let Elohim speak to us, lest we die."

-One of the key things at Sinai was that the people asked for someone who would be between them and the creator. Moses, you go listen to what God says, you come back and tell us, and we will listen, but they didn't listen to this day. The promise was that if another would go to God and bring back his message, they would listen and do it. The biggest problem in the world today is that God's message through his prophets is still not heeded.

-Each of the prophets get their own vision of certain key points in the study of the last days, and much of the material deals with the time at hand. All of the prophets are addressing things that are going on around them, yet at other times they look forward to the days to come. In our study, we will talk about the tribes and various aspects of God that the prophets reveal. These prophets encountered God in a way that most humans never do and never will. We get some great insight into various subject matters and into the nature of God himself. As we focus on the prophets and prophecy, I want to also focus on the words of YHVH, the words of God within the word of God, dealing mainly with the text of the Hebrew Scriptures. We are searching the scriptures for those life giving, flaming inspired words of the Hebrew prophets.

-Deu 8: 1 "The whole commandment that I command you today you shall be careful to do, that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land that YHVH swore to give to your fathers. 2 And you shall remember the whole way that YHVH your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments or not. 3 And he humbled you and let you hunger and fed you with manna, which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that he might make you know that man does not live by bread alone, but man lives by every word that comes from the mouth of YHVH.

-Please join us as we journey through our teaching series called, "Prophet".

TEACHING NOTES

-Today we are in the 20th class of our series called "Prophet" and we are continuing with our message on the servant from last week. Within the "Prophet" series we are doing a sub-series on "The Servant in Isaiah", and today is our seventh class. No less than 7 times in Isaiah 40-66 is the name Israel or Jacob associated with the servant. Other passages deal with the servant where the servant is not specifically named, where the language in the unnamed text perfectly matches the language in another text where Israel or Jacob is named as the servant. Begin with the 7 clear texts, however these do not preclude that another can't be the servant. Within these verses we get strong textual indications that within the greater servant Israel, there's a servant within the servant who is also identified as Israel's servant and as the Prophets. You have the servant nation Israel and within that servant you have a group of servants called Prophets. Nineteen times in the Hebrew Scriptures God says, "My servants the prophets"; and these servants the prophets suffered tremendously and upon them is a heavy hand. Quite often when these prophets are chosen, they often say, can you pick another.

-Amo 3: 1 Hear this word that YHVH has spoken against you, O people of Israel, against the whole family that I brought up out of the land of Egypt: 2 "You only have I known of all the families of the earth; therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities. 3 "Do two walk together, unless they have agreed to meet? 4 Does a lion roar in the forest, when he has no prey? Does a young lion cry out from his den, if he has taken nothing? 5 Does a bird fall in a snare on the earth, when there is no trap for it? Does a snare spring up from the ground, when it has taken nothing? 6 Is a trumpet blown in a city, and the people are not afraid? Does disaster come to a city, unless YHVH has done it? 7 "For Adonai YHVH does nothing without revealing his secret to his servants the prophets. 8 The lion has roared; who will not fear? Adonai YHVH has spoken; who can but prophesy?"

-All of these things say that something causes the action, the lion roars, the people fear; the trap closes, something triggered it; and so it is with the prophet speaking. The prophecies are prompted by something and that something is that YHVH has revealed his secret to his servants the prophets. The prophets don't just speak on their own. When they do speak on their own, not having heard the secret of YHVH, they're speaking on their own and that's the prophets we want to avoid. Adonai YHVH reveals his secret to the prophets, they see it and then go forward. What does his secret mean? The root word in Hebrew has the idea of an intimate council (sod in Hebrew) with a personal audience, thus a secret. When you reveal / unveil a secret to someone, the idea is that they respect that intimacy you're giving to them when you tell them this word. God pulls into his secret council, his servants the prophet. He pulls back / unveils the curtain so that they can look in. This intimate council can be both good and bad. Sometimes this intimate council of the bad guys can be against the prophets.

-Jer 15: 17 I did not sit in the company of revelers, nor did I rejoice; I sat alone, because your hand was upon me, for you had filled me with indignation. 18 Why is my pain unceasing, my wound incurable, refusing to be healed? Will you be to me like a deceitful brook, like waters that fail?

-When Jeremiah says, I did not sit in the company of revelers, this is an example of the intimate council of bad. Jeremiah says that he sat alone; and this is because the hand is heavy on him.

-Jer 23: 16 Thus says YHVH of hosts: "Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you, filling you with vain hopes. They speak visions of their own minds, not from the mouth of YHVH. 17 They say continually to those who despise the word of YHVH, 'It shall be well with you'; and to everyone who stubbornly follows his own heart, they say, 'No disaster shall come upon you.'" 18 For who among them has stood in the council of YHVH to see and to hear his word, or who has paid attention to his word and listened? 19 Behold, the storm of YHVH! Wrath has gone forth, a whirling tempest; it will burst upon the head of the wicked. 20 The anger of YHVH will not turn back until he has executed and accomplished the intents of his heart. In the latter days you will understand it clearly. 21 "I did not send the prophets, yet they ran; I did not speak to them, yet they prophesied. 22 But if they had stood in my council, then they would have proclaimed my words to my people, and they would have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their deeds.

-This is a warning to not listen to these prophets. There are two groups of prophets in Jeremiah occurring at the same time and he calls the bad prophets, these lying prophets. Jeremiah has the true word of YHVH because he's in YHVH's council and he's hearing directly from God. The message he's hearing is not the message that the false prophets are giving. They are saying, "Thus says YHVH", and telling the people that bad is not coming, but yes, it is coming and it's coming quickly. People only want to hear good news, not the bad news that Jeremiah is giving. YHVH is speaking through Jeremiah.

-Jer 23: 18 For who among them has stood in the council of YHVH to see and to hear his word, or who has paid attention to his word and listened?

-If one stands in the council of YHVH he will perceive and hear his word. He will see and hear the council of YHVH. When one is in this intimate council, they are being shown and spoken to and get a vision of what is to come. They've marked his word / paid attention and listened. Think about Isaiah Chapter 6 where Isaiah says he beheld this vision of being in the throne room and he beholds YHVH sitting high upon a throne and he sees the burning ones. They're attending an altar and they pull coals off of the altar. Isaiah says I'm a man of unclean lips and I dwell among a people of unclean lips. One of the burning ones takes a hot coal from the altar and touches Jeremiah's mouth and he sees, and he hears because he's in that secret council.

-Jer 23: 22 But if they had stood in my council, then they would have proclaimed my words to my people, and they would have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their deeds.

-This is how you know. If someone is in the council during times of impending danger, they're not likely to say, everything is ok. If they had stood in the council, they would have done these two things; they would have caused my people to hear my words (not words they made up) and they would have turned them from their evil way and from their bad. The expectancy of my servants the prophets is that they will make use of what they gain in the council. You heard it, you saw it, take that message forth. A prophet is one who goes and gets and brings back a message, that's the expectancy. First you have to be invited into the council, "And the word of YHVH was unto"; "YHVH came unto me saying". It's this idea that the word of YHVH comes to you.

-Eze 13: 1 The word of YHVH came to me: 2 "Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel, who are prophesying, and say to those who prophesy from their own hearts: 'Hear the word of YHVH!' 3 Thus says Adonai YHVH, Woe to the foolish prophets who follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing! 4 Your prophets have been like jackals among ruins, O Israel. 5 You have not gone up into the breaches, or built up a wall for the house of Israel, that it might stand in battle in the day of YHVH. 6 They have seen false visions and lying divinations. They say, 'Declares YHVH,' when YHVH has not sent them, and yet they expect him to fulfill their word. 7 Have you not seen a false vision and uttered a lying divination, whenever you have said, 'Declares YHVH,' although I have not spoken?" 8 Therefore thus says Adonai YHVH: "Because you have uttered falsehood and seen lying visions, therefore behold, I am against you, declares Adonai YHVH. 9 My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and who give lying divinations. They shall not be in the council of my people, nor be enrolled in the register of the house of Israel, nor shall they enter the land of Israel. And you shall know that I am Adonai YHVH. 10 Precisely because they have misled my people, saying, 'Peace,' when there is no peace, and because, when the people build a wall, these prophets smear it with whitewash, 11 say to those who smear it with whitewash that it shall fall! There will be a deluge of rain, and you, O great hailstones, will fall, and a stormy wind break out. 12 And when the wall falls, will it not be said to you, 'Where is the coating with which you smeared it?'

-They build a false wall of lies and make it look pretty and create the illusion that what they say is real, it's important, and that the Lord says... The enemy is at the gate and you can hear the hoof beats, trouble is impending, and these prophets are saying it's not going to happen. Prosperity preachers tell us that we are blessed and that we are chosen, and all these wonderful things are going to happen. These false prophets will not make the cut because they are not in the intimate council of God's people.

-Psa 25: 14 The friendship (council) of YHVH is for those who fear him, and he makes known to them (he will cause them to know) his covenant.

-Psa 111: 1 Praise YHVH! I will give thanks to YHVH with my whole heart, in the company (council) of the upright, in the congregation.

-Within the servant nation the true prophets / servant people are like a holy of holies. The servant nation is to be a holy people, an assembly of righteous ones, but within that people there is an even holier group. Singled out, called, specially chosen and the hand of God is upon them to lead, direct and instruct the larger group.

-Job 15: 8 Have you listened in the council of God? And do you limit wisdom to yourself?

-Here we find Eliphaz the Temanite sort of mocking Job. Are you in the inner council Job? Do you happen to listen to God speaking? People knew in antiquity about this secret council. It was an idea that was being talked about even as early as the book of Job.

-Job 29: 1 And Job again took up his discourse, and said: 2 "Oh, that I were as in the months of old, as in the days when God watched over me, 3 when his lamp shone upon my head, and by his light I walked through darkness, 4 as I was in my prime, when the friendship (council) of God was upon my tent, 5 when the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were all around me, 6 when my steps were washed with butter, and the rock poured out for me streams of oil!

-Pro 3: 32 for the devious person is an abomination to YHVH, but the upright are in his confidence (council).

-The intimate council of YHVH is reserved for the upright. Just because someone says, "Thus says YHVH", doesn't mean that they took this from their encounter at the council. This inner circle of servants is an inner circle of trust with prophets that see and hear the words of YHVH and then they bring the message to the people hoping that they will hear YHVH's word and turn from their evil ways. YHVH tells the prophets, I'm not sending you to a people of a different language or that they don't understand your speech, they're just not listening or going to do what you tell them to do. If I sent you to a people of a strange speech, they would respond. The Book of Jonah is a good example of that. Jonah goes to another people and the message that God gives evokes true repentance. The message of God to people, at its root, is to turn from the bad way and the bad deeds and walk in the way.

-I propose to you that this task and an invitation to the council is by God and from God. One doesn't ask to be accepted into the council, into this intimate circle of individuals because this group could be doing something else. Amos was taking care of sycamore trees. God told Amos that he had a message he wanted Amos to give to the king. Amos was challenged by the people and was told to go prophesy in Judah, they'll like your message, we're happy here. Ultimately Amos says, I'm not a prophet or the son of a prophet, I was dealing with sheepfolds and taking care of sycamore trees and YHVH told me to come say this and I'm going to say it. When the prophets are invited into this intimate council with God they then function as an intermediary between the people and God. They have a unique task which is to bring about at times deliverance and it has to do with their message and their function in that role.

-Jer 15: 1 Then YHVH said to me, "Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my heart would not turn toward this people. Send them out of my sight, and let them go! 2 And when they ask you, 'Where shall we go?' you shall say to them, 'Thus says YHVH: "Those who are for pestilence, to pestilence, and those who are for the sword, to the sword; those who are for famine, to famine, and those who are for captivity, to captivity.' -YHVH is telling Jeremiah in the council, if Moses and Samuel were right here, I wouldn't incline myself towards this people in their favor. YHVH is saying, even if Moses and Samuel came before me, it wouldn't affect anything. Those who are called into the council have a position between God and the people.

-Eze 14: 12 And the word of YHVH came to me: 13 "Son of man, when a land sins against me by acting faithlessly, and I stretch out my hand against it and break its supply of bread and send famine upon it, and cut off from it man and beast, 14 even if these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they would deliver but their own lives by their righteousness, declares Adonai YHVH. 15 "If I cause wild beasts to pass through the land, and they ravage it, and it be made desolate, so that no one may pass through because of the beasts, 16 even if these three men were in it, as I live, declares Adonai YHVH, they would deliver neither sons nor daughters. They alone would be delivered, but the land would be desolate. 17 "Or if I bring a sword upon that land and say, Let a sword pass through the land, and I cut off from it man and beast, 18 though these three men were in it, as I live, declares Adonai YHVH, they would deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they alone would be delivered. 19 "Or if I send a pestilence into that land and pour out my wrath upon it with blood, to cut off from it man and beast, 20 even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live, declares Adonai YHVH, they would deliver neither son nor daughter. They would deliver but their own lives by their righteousness.

-There are times that certain men of the council were able to deliver more than themselves. They function in that role to intercede on the behalf of. Ezekiel talks about one who stands in the gap. This idea is important. There are times throughout history where members of the intimate council have been called to function in an intermediary role for the purpose of to lead and direct and to guide God's people along a straight and narrow path. That is the function of the prophets, my servants the prophets. Ultimately, we know that a prophet is in the know of the council when they proclaim a message that causes the people to hear the word of YHVH and turn from the bad and walk in the way. The unfaithful are excluded from this company. Those who are in the council are shown the covenant and often the faithful ones, my servants the prophets, this is the group that's in the council. What would it be like if you were privy to the secret council? In the Book of Books, we have example of what is heard and what is seen in the council.

-2Kin 17: 13 Yet YHVH warned Israel and Judah by every prophet and every seer, saying, "Turn from your evil ways and keep my commandments and my statutes, in accordance with all the Law that I commanded your fathers, and that I sent to you by my servants the prophets." 14 But they would not listen, but were stubborn, as their fathers had been, who did not believe in YHVH their God. 15 They despised his statutes and his covenant that he made with their fathers and the warnings that he gave them. They went after false idols and became false, and they followed the nations that were around them, concerning whom YHVH had commanded them that they should not do like them. 16 And they abandoned all the commandments of YHVH their God, and made for themselves metal images of two calves; and they made an Asherah and worshiped all the host of heaven and served Baal. 17 And they burned their sons and their daughters as offerings and used divination and omens and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of YHVH, provoking him to anger. 18 Therefore YHVH was very angry with Israel and removed them out of his sight. None was left but the tribe of Judah only.

-Here we see that all the prophets come forth with a message that says, turn from your bad ways, turn to the good and keep my commandments. Guard my commands, my statutes, all my Torah I commanded your fathers which I sent to them by the hand of my servants.

-Jer 7: 3 Thus says YHVH of hosts, the God of Israel: Amend your ways and your deeds, and I will let you dwell in this place. 4 Do not trust in these deceptive words: 'This is the temple of YHVH, the temple of YHVH, the temple of YHVH.'

-Lots of people think that if we just had the temple, that everything would be fine. Jeremiah lives in a time when the temple has been restored and everything "as it should be", and they begin to rely on the external elements of religion. They're thinking nothing can happen to us. We have the righteous king Josiah and they just found not long ago the Torah of Moses. They had a great short-lived revival, restored the temple, the ark is back in the temple, but Jeremiah says, trust not in lying words, the temple of YHVH, the temple of YHVH, the temple of YHVH.

-Jer 7: 5 "For if you truly amend your ways and your deeds, if you truly execute justice one with another, 6 if you do not oppress the sojourner, the fatherless, or the widow, or shed innocent blood in this place, and if you do not go after other gods to your own harm, 7 then I will let you dwell in this place, in the land that I gave of old to your fathers forever.

-Notice what the message is, change your ways, change your walk, change your works, quit doing bad and do good. Notice here he says, "do not oppress".

-Lev 19: 13 "You shall not oppress your neighbor or rob him. The wages of a hired worker shall not remain with you all night until the morning.

-Deu 24: 14 "You shall not oppress a hired worker who is poor and needy, whether he is one of your brothers or one of the sojourners who are in your land within your towns.

-Jer 18: 11 Now, therefore, say to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: 'Thus says YHVH, Behold, I am shaping disaster against you and devising a plan against you. Return, every one from his evil way, and amend your ways and your deeds.' 12 "But they say, 'That is in vain! We will follow our own plans, and will every one act according to the stubbornness of his evil heart.'

-Jer 22: 3 Thus says YHVH: Do justice and righteousness, and deliver from the hand of the oppressor him who has been robbed. And do no wrong or violence to the resident alien, the fatherless, and the widow, nor shed innocent blood in this place. 4 For if you will indeed obey this word, then there shall enter the gates of this house kings who sit on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they and their servants and their people. 5 But if you will not obey these words, I swear by myself, declares YHVH, that this house shall become a desolation.

-Has anybody seen a descendant of David sitting upon a throne? Is the temple operational, the same building that they trusted in that's been destroyed again and again? If we were to build another temple and restart the sacrifices, does that bring the redemption and fix anything? No! If people don't listen to the message of the council everything will be destroyed.

-Jer 25: 3 "For twenty-three years, from the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, to this day, the word of YHVH has come to me, and I have spoken persistently to you, but you have not listened. 4 You have neither listened nor inclined your ears to hear, although YHVH persistently sent to you all his servants the prophets, 5 saying, 'Turn now, every one of you, from his evil way and evil deeds, and dwell upon the land that YHVH has given to you and your fathers from of old and forever. 6 Do not go after other gods to serve and worship them, or provoke me to anger with the work of your hands. Then I will do you no harm.' 7 Yet you have not listened to me, declares YHVH, that you might provoke me to anger with the work of your hands to your own harm.

-Jer 26: 12 Then Jeremiah spoke to all the officials and all the people, saying, "YHVH sent me to prophesy against this house and this city all the words you have heard. 13 Now therefore mend your ways and your deeds, and obey the voice of YHVH your God, and YHVH will relent of the disaster that he has pronounced against you. 14 But as for me, behold, I am in your hands. Do with me as seems good and right to you. 15 Only know for certain that if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood upon yourselves and upon this city and its inhabitants, for in truth YHVH sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears."

-This is where the people want to kill Jeremiah to shut him up. He's in the council and he hears the message, and he says he comes here for a drink and I get here, and the brook is dry. I've got another bad message to give. Jeremiah basically feels like he has nowhere to go. He's hated in the city. He sits alone. When he goes to YHVH he's given more bad news to bring to the people. When he complains to God, God tells him to listen to me Jeremiah, I'll give you another chance, if you stand before me and listen to my words and go tell them to the people, then you'll be my mouthpiece. God doesn't address any of Jeremiah's complaint, he just says, Jeremiah, I need you to listen to me and focus. I need you to be my mouthpiece and go tell them.

-Jer 35: 14 I have spoken to you persistently, but you have not listened to me. 15 I have sent to you all my servants the prophets, sending them persistently, saying, 'Turn now every one of you from his evil way, and amend your deeds, and do not go after other gods to serve them, and then you shall dwell in the land that I gave to you and your fathers.' But you did not incline your ear or listen to me.

-The message of the council is simple, amend your ways and doings, don't be idolaters, don't do like your fathers. Throughout history, what's the response to that message? Day and night I brought my servants, I got them up early to go tell the message and the people don't listen and they don't do it. This reminds me of life as a parent. The prophets were going to the people and said, "Thus says YHVH", and they're still acting like bad children.

-Zec 7: 8 And the word of YHVH came to Zechariah, saying, 9 "Thus says YHVH of hosts, Render true judgments, show kindness and mercy to one another, 10 do not oppress the widow, the fatherless, the sojourner, or the poor, and let none of you devise evil against another in your heart." 11 But they refused to pay attention and turned a stubborn shoulder and stopped their ears that they might not hear. 12 They made their hearts diamond-hard lest they should hear the law and the words that YHVH of hosts had sent by his Spirit through the former prophets. Therefore great anger came from YHVH of hosts. 13 "As I called, and they would not hear, so they called, and I would not hear," says YHVH of hosts, 14 "and I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations that they had not known. Thus the land they left was desolate, so that no one went to and fro, and the pleasant land was made desolate."

-Basically, the servants the prophets called the people to reform. Amend your ways and your doings. Turn from the bad to the good. Walk in the way of YHVH. Live according to justice and righteousness in the land. It's not just external things, don't hold bad feeling against your neighbor in your heart. The true Torah / instruction of YHVH is aimed to get on the inside. The Torah demands a level of the heart. Those of old have said, you shall not steal, but I say to you, don't even desire what belongs to another. It's a deeper level of desire where you go to devising bad. A married man can't take the woman of another man. You are not supposed to desire another mans woman. The Torah says you're not to do this. The one's who are in the council are being told that you can't even devise evil against a brother in your heart.

-Who were the men of the council (sod in Hebrew)? We gave some examples today, but what else can we learn about this from the book of books? Who was the first person allowed into this secret council? What's the evidence of that one being invited into the inner council? We have to track the men of the council and trace them by clues in the bible. What was it they heard and what was their message? Sometimes we know what they heard by what their message is and vice versa. Join us next week as we begin an in-depth survey of the people of the sod.

Shabbat Shalom, Shavua Tov, be blessed, I'll see you next week.

UIWU ANNOUNCEMENT:

The Moses Scroll book release date of 8 March 2021 was purposely chosen. Moses Shapira died on 8 March 1884, and as far as we know, the last public sighting of his scroll was 8 March 1889. It seemed apropos to share the scroll anew with the world on that same fateful day.
