No-Ach – Finding Grace in Torah Living - Genesis 6:9 – 11:32 (The Book of Beginnings is more than a series of stories. They actually contain an unfolding revelation beginning with the history of humankind, back before Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, when there is no Israel. It's the Torah or instruction for all humanity, a universal teaching, Torah for the nations, truths for and about all humankind. We all descend from Adam and Noah and we are all tied to Noah. Man was created in the image of God. We have great potential. Our own purpose and walk are more understandable. YHVH took man and rested him in the garden and gave him charge of guarding and serving. Man can only fulfill his purpose under the charge of YHVH. When man chooses to violate the will of the creator, we sin. The result of sin is death. Sin leads to exile.)

Bereshit – A New Beginning - Genesis 1:1 – 6:8 (Welcome to a new beginning. Torah is the instructions of Moses and it begins at the beginning. Genesis in Greek means origins and in Hebrew means "In Beginning", in getting started. When the creator spoke, the world came into creation. The earth was a watery chaos and the Spirit made the earth suitable for life. The Spirit is needed for anything to have life. Genesis notes that God is, was, and will be. We know nothing of the creator before this. It's through these instructions and stories that we get to know who the creator is. He is known from the rising of the sun to its setting.)

Yehovah's Ancient Torah Covenants with Israel (Ancient Covenants are made up of the following steps: Preamble or Title, Historical Prologue, Stipulations, Storage or Deposition, Periodic Public Reading, Witness, Oath, Promises for Compliance, Penalty for Breach, and Sign (Israel). Yom Kippur – A Day to Deny Self - Leviticus 16 & Leviticus 23:26-32 (There are several appointments which fall in the seventh month. The first is the first day of the seventh month, the blasting of the horns / the day of the awakening blast. The second is the tenth day of the seventh month, the day of the coverings. The third starts on the fifteenth day of the seventh month and lasts for seven days, the festival of tabernacles / booths. The Jews also have one called the rejoicing of the Torah at the end of tabernacles. Time is the first thing God called holy, set apart, or consecrated. YHVH told Moses to make the people holy and to be ready to receive the covenant. This was the second thing to be called holy. Not all time or people are holy. However, sanctified people are set apart time for those who claim to be holy. When holy people argue over the days this is a problem among the people.)
